

Ridder China at a glance

Daughter company of Ridder Group, worldwide market leader in greenhouse automation and growing solutions

Established in July 2015, translating Dutch agri-food expertise into adaptive technology and know-how that is tailored precisely to the local needs and conditions in China

- Drive Systems
- Climate Screens
- Automated Climate Control
- Water Management and Treatment
- Labor & Production Management

Our Achievement

100 + horticultural businesses

Double in turnover every year

Changing to manufacturing WFOE

China's largest greenhouses

Profitable in three years

Best in the Ridder group

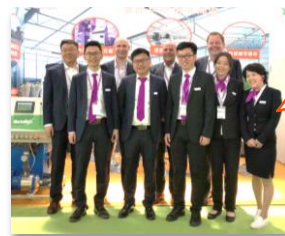

We CARE: Best Team

Committed: to finding the best possible solutions to realizing clients' success

Adaptive: synergy of Dutch technology with Chinese talent to suit local preferences

Reliable: we circumvent and solve problems ASAP if they occur

Experienced: we train clients and each other with expertise from multiple disciplines

"I enjoy working in this team. I feel inspired and have much fun here. We have both great ideas and laughter in work."

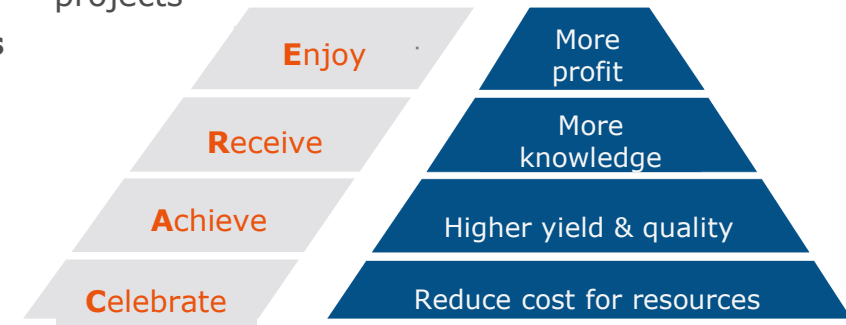

"We support each other. My colleagues are like my friends and families."

Clients CARE: Best Results

Clients trust from dedication to quality & service Well-known for delivering results

Reliable long-term partner for successive projects

"We became good friends with clients as we share knowledge with them."

